

GATE
Pain Management
Interest Group
Victoria

Pain Matters 5

‘Global year of Pain in the most Vulnerable’

Monday 7 October 2019

Aim of Program

This education day will offer an update in Pain Management with interesting and varied topics presented by respected clinicians.

Venue

MELBOURNE EXHIBITION & CONVENTION CENTRE

Program Outline

- Pain Assessment: Should we revisit and develop a risk profile instead?
- The Psychology of Vulnerable Pain patients: Borderline Personality Disorder
- Mesh: my journey from vulnerability to empowerment
- Analgesic choices and why
- Unravelling Pelvic Pain
- Rapid Communication presentations & Complex pain presentations

Program Eligibility

The program is open to Registered Nurses and Allied Health staff who have an interest in pain management.

Course Fees

$120.00 per person – does not include the administration fee
Please register through EVENTBRITE – see below for details.

Program Duration

0800 registration Program commences 0830 hours & concludes at 1600 hours

Amenities

Morning tea and lunch will be provided. Please advise of any dietary requirements via Eventbrite website when registering

Speakers

- Dr Malcolm Hogg , Anaesthesia & Specialist Pain Physician, RMH
- Dr Sian Cole, Health Psychologist, Northern Health,
- Ms Dora Vasiliadis – consumer advocate
- GATE members
- Dr Sonia Grover
- N Gauthier, W McDonald, D Taylor, O Sonnerborn

CPD points = 6

Attendance certificates will be emailed to participants following attendance. Please note there will NOT be any handouts provided on this day

Register via

EVENTBRITE https:// www.eventbrite.com

Enquiries: GATE Pain Management Interest Group, Victoria

Email: Annie Williams annie.williams@eastern.health.org.au or Patsy Holland patsy.holland@sjog.org.au

Sponsors: INVIDIOR; MUNDIPHARMA; SEQIRUS; APS postcards